Competency Based Leadership Education

The Advanced Management Program is part of TPMG's Competency Based Education platform. The Continuing Education Units (CEUs) awarded are nationally recognized and provide a record of an individual's continuing education accomplishments.

The Right Fit at the Right Time

To grow and succeed, high potential employees emerging from their technical functions urgently require strong business acumen, sound judgement and effective people skills. Entrepreneurs and small businesses leaders may not have the time nor the opportunity to complete a university MBA program. This is where the AMP becomes a valuable asset to both the emerging leader and his/her company.

Cutting – Edge Content and Innovation Delivered Online

Through an innovative online live format, TPMG's Advanced Management Program empowers promising young managers to think strategically, manage cross functionally and lead with confidence. For one week a month, spread across 3 months, AMP participants benefit from cutting edge adult learning activities that include the case method, small group exercises, and best practice presentations from proven industry leaders.

Week One

Module 1 – Strategy and Finance

- Analyze financial statements determine a firm's capacity to create and sustain shareholder value
- Conduct industry analysis and determine the underlying forces of market competition
- Learn to formulate and deploy a corporate and business unit strategy

Week Two

Module 2 – Operational Excellence

- Understand and apply the principles of Lean Management and high-performance management systems
- Measure, analyze, and improve organizational performance by using data and performance analytics
- Apply Activity Based Costing (ABC) to improve operational efficiencies

Week Three

Module 3 – Management & Leadership

- Create a leadership system to focus action on strategy, work systems and results
- Understand people and their motivations, examine employee performance in new ways
- Learn to shape business and organizational cultures

What to Expect

Collaborating with accomplished peers, guest speakers from top companies, and a TPMG Leadership Coach, AMP participants will acquire the leadership skills and business acumen to grow and succeed at higher levels of responsibility. While immersed in the program, participants will learn to build and lead high-performance cultures, apply new approaches to work with and through others, and improve critical thinking skills in order to make better business decisions and solve problems.
